Slava Seidel - Art Award PHÖNIX 2018

The winner is selected: The prize, worth 20,000 Euros, will be awarded to the German artist Slava Seidel.

She was chosen for the award for using her magnificent illusionist painting in sepia ink.

Slava Seidel studied interior design in Saint Petersburg and was also active as stage designer. she studied at the State Academy of Fine Arts (Städelschule) in Frankfurt am Main, and was a master student in professional free painting, where she studied with Christa Näher. In 2008, she graduated.

"Slava Seidel's paintings are breathtaking, with their casual mixed technique of streaky sepia-ink and symbolically condensed Oil painting. In the spatial continuum of their architectural compositions, which inspire new directions or open new doors.", the jury explains the decision.

The PHÖNIX Prize has been awarded 10 times. More than 500 artists from Germany and abroad applied for the prize.

Members of the jury are the artist Ursula von Rheinbaben, the director of the Buchheim Museum in Bernried, Daniel J. Schreiber, and Deputy Director of the Evangelical Academy Tutzing, Judith Stumptner.
